MARCH GENERAL MEETING

We have an interesting two-part program planned for our March general membership meeting to get us all ready to enter the 2006 paddling season.

Jon Anderson will share his Harriman Fjord tsunami experience. Anderson and his group were loading their kayaks at Harriman Fjord last summer when a wave from a calving glacier hit the beach. Kayaks went floating, people were swimming, yet they lived to tell their tale.

In addition, award-winning Alaskan videographer Bill Rome will present Prince William Sound Up Close. Bill has over 20 years of experience traveling the waters of Prince William Sound in an inflatable boat. This presentation is the result of years of observation and hundreds of hours of video taping for this full time Alaskan.

Location: Wilda Marsten Theater

Address: Lower Level Loussac Library 3600 Denali Street

Date: Thursday March 23rd 2006

Time: 7.00 p.m.

ANNUAL KCK SAFETY MEETING REMINDER

The 2006 Spring KCK Safety Meeting will be held at 7:00 pm Tuesday April 11th at the Loussac Library.

The waterways of Alaska can be as dangerous and unforgiving as they are spectacular. Whether you are a sea kayaker, a white water rafter, or a flatwater canoeist, safety is your concern. With the explosion in the number of people becoming involved in paddle sports there has been an equally large number of accidents and fatalities involving paddle sports. Let's all do our best to help prevent KCK members or anyone from the Alaskan paddling community from becoming a statistic.

Attendance at the KCK safety meeting is mandatory for those who wish to participate in one of the spring classes (rafting, canoeing, kayaking). Topics include Paddle Safety Gear, Trip Planning, Boating Hazards, Defensive Swimming, and Hypothermia.

Sign ups for the Spring Classes will occur the same day and place at 6:00 pm. Be there early as they tend to be popular and have filled up in the past.

Marvin Copley is the Safety Committee Director and is coordinating this year's event. The safety meeting flyer is available at <http://copleyak.tripod.com/flydown.html>

There will be safety-related door prizes available at the training. Pick up your ticket at the door.

SUMMARY OF KCK BOARD MEETING—MAR 7th

Reports from ongoing committees or members

KCK Operations Manual

Randy is continuing to gather and type up information to go into the KCK Operations Manual. He will send out an outline form of additional information needed on past board positions on various issues to those involved in past board decisions and actions. Secretary Randy Knauf is facilitating a project to produce a KCK Operations Manual. The purpose of this manual is to capture club procedures and processes and other "institutional knowledge" in one place.

Website

Terry reported the KCK web site had 3000 visits in February with 15,000 hits on various pages. Visits peaked the few days before the general meeting which seems to indicate deliberate use and interest more than random browsing. In addition to the KCK website, the club will manage a Yahoo Group site devoted to KCK and other paddle sports activities. Look for information regarding the Group site on the KCK website.

April Safety Meeting

Marvin Copley gave a report on the planning for the April safety meeting. He has already started publicity notices and contacts in the community. The meeting agenda is made up and presenters selected. Posters have been made and are ready to send out. He has the raffle tickets ready and has selected door prizes for the meeting. Randy will update the KCK hotline and check with Alaska Raft and Kayak on the last two door prizes. Marvin will also arrange for outfitted boat displays at the meeting. He has a registration process set up for instructors and membership. All is on schedule and progressing nicely.

Opportunities for Training

Kelly briefed the meeting attendees on opportunities for course accrediting instructors, as well as swift water rescue. Visit the resource section of our website to find links to these opportunities.

Board member Opie Coombs is preparing to launch KCK photo and possibly new logo contest. Be on the lookout for this development and save your photos.

New Business

Listserver use and/or misuse

There have been complaints about the number and type of commercial postings on the listserver. Members who had been around and/or involved when the change was made several years ago to allow some limited commercial postings reviewed what happened at that time. Kelly went over the current regulations that people are supposed to read when they sign up for the listserver. There was general agreement that the current regulations are not written clearly enough to explain the boards position. There was also agreement that the listserver postings should primarily be for the benefit of KCK members rather than for the commercial companies. Kelly appointed a committee of Carl, Marvin, and Randy to check with pat board members and rewrite the last sentence of the listserver regulations so it will clearly and specifically state how commercial companies may post on the listserver.

KCK Class Processes

Kelly distributed a memo for those volunteering to assist with the KCK spring classes. The purpose of the memo is to provide a timeline and procedures in order to have the event sanctioned and insured for the ACA in a timely fashion.

MESSAGE FROM THE KCK PRESIDENT

In a few short weeks KCK will be hosting the annual Paddle Sports Safety Meeting on Tuesday, April 11 at 7:00 p.m. in the Wilda Marston Theatre of the Loussac Library here in Anchorage. It gets exciting after this! Come as early as 6:00 p.m. and sign up for one of our spring/summer classes in Whitewater Rafting, Sea Kayaking, and Whitewater Canoeing. As of this writing we are also trying to sponsor classes in Basic Canoeing and Inflatable Kayaking. Courses usually include a classroom session or two, and a chance to get wet in a heated pool followed by an outing on the water. This season we will be offering two courses in Sea Kayaking to accommodate the usual interest in this class. Stay tuned to our website for this and more information.

Other courses and learning opportunities continue to be available through private outfitters and the upcoming Alaska Sea Kayaking Symposium. Check out the links found in the resource section of our website. One can learn the basics as well as get training as an instructor through the American Canoe Association and British Canoe Union systems. Courses in whitewater rescue for safety preparedness when running rivers are also scheduled in the forthcoming months.

When you join KCK ($10 individual and $15 family) you are joining years of experience and adventure shared by others. Fun events are always planned and being enjoyed during the boating season and include opportunities for beginners, evening potlucks at the Jewel Lake Shelter, BBQ's on the river, and a season's ending Thanksgiving potluck!

I wandered on down to the annual KCK Safety Meeting several years ago and found myself on the Copper River weeks later on a trip-of-a-lifetime. Since then I have found participation in KCK as a wonderful, safe, and friendly way to learn about many of our glorious waterways here in Alaska. Give yourself this opportunity and join us!

ANNUAL PADDLE SPORT CLASSES

KCK is preparing to offer its annual paddle sports classes... whitewater rafting, sea kayaking, and basic canoeing included. This year the club will offer 2 sea kayaking courses. A big thank you for those volunteering to provide and facilitate paddle sport classes for KCK!

KCK is an "Affiliate" of the American Canoe Association. As an affiliate we can gain ACA sanctioning and event insurance one-time-only for each event (class) we wish to sponsor as a club. KCK has utilized its affiliate status in prior years when providing paddle sport classes. More information can be found at: www.americancanoe.org

All class participants must be a member of KCK! Signing up is available at the April 11 Safety Meeting (see Board Member Luci Davis and her helpers at the sign-up table).

All class participants must become a member of the American Canoe Association. Non-ACA members will automatically be signed up when registering for the class. $10 of your class fee is designated for the participant's one-time/one-event only membership. If a participant is already an ACA member they can show their proof of membership in 3 ways – 1) current membership card copy, 2) member should contact ACA regarding proof and present it, and 3) entering their membership number online at www.americancanoe.org/mlinks/loginresp2.lasso and print out the membership verification page.

KCK looks forward to your participation, all the fun we will have, and your future participation as a volunteer instructor or assistant next year!
